

25 words

When the threat of early death comes knocking, mother, father and son are launched on an emotional rollercoaster in the search for life's meaning.

42 words

Stage IV is a documentary feature of how a family's dream changes when death unexpectedly comes knocking. It's a poetic yet intimately honest, even humorous and inspiring story that will forever change how you choose to live the rest of your life.

54 words

Anne is given 9 months to live. This sets up the drama between characters and launches them on a last minute quest for life's meaning. This suspenseful and entertaining story flows between sadness and humor, courage and fear, love and anger in a turbulent yet ultimately serene journey of awakening to the present moment.

112 words

When the threat of early death comes knocking, one woman, her close family and friends are launched on a quest for life's meaning. Stage IV, a 85 min. documentary takes us on an intimately honest and inspiring, even humorous journey where Anne 47, transforms her imminent dying as an opportunity to ask – why am I alive? All key moments of this character-driven story are told through intimate verité footage, building suspense as to Anne's fate and intercut with candid interviews revealing contradictions, confessions and revelations. Stage IV flows between lightness and sadness, courage and fear, love and anger in a turbulent yet ultimately serene journey of awakening to the present moment.